GUIDANCE ON APPLICATIONS FOR A PRIVATE HIRE DRIVER'S LICENCE

The Council will only issue licenses to those persons who it considers are fit and proper persons to hold a licence. From 1 December 2016, this will include checks on whether an applicant has a right to licence. This means that your right to work in the UK will be checked as part of your licence application, this could include the licensing authority checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. You must therefore provide a document or document combination that is stipulated as being suitable for this check. A list of the documents which are acceptable is contained in the annex to the Home Office guidance.

You must provide the original document(s), such as your passport or biometric residence permit, as indicated in the published guidance, so that the check can take place. The document(s) will be copied and the copy retained by the licensing authority. The original document will be returned to you. Your application will not be considered valid until all the necessary information and original document(s) have been produced and the relevant paid has been paid.

If there are restrictions on the length of time you may work in the UK, your licence will not be issued for any longer than this period. In such circumstances the check will be repeated each time you apply to renew or extend your licence, If, during this period, you are disqualified from holding a licence because you have not complied with the UK's immigration laws, your licence will lapse and you must return it to the licensing authority. Failure to do so is a criminal offence.'

In addition, to the right to licence check the Council has various other requirements. These requirements differ slightly depending on whether it's a new application or a renewal and are set out below:
